HERE YOU ARE.

An Official Report of the New Medical Society.

The Great Interest in the Matter Throughout the City and the "Scoop" Worked by the News-Democrat Applauded—But It's Nothing Unusual.

As stated exclusively in Tuesday's News-DEMOCRAT a reorganization of the Stark County Medical Society took place at the Barnett House Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was a secret one and although the substance of the meeting was given yesterday the following report of the secretary is published to-day:

THE OFFICIAL REPORT.

Pursuant to a request of several members of the medical profession of Stark county, a meeting was held Tuesday afternoon, January 22nd, in the parlors of the Barnett Hotel, this city, for the purpose of organizing a New Medical Society.

The meeting was a decidedly successful one. Harmony prevailed throughout, and there was manifest a universal opinion that a new society should be formed. No time was lost in discussing the purpose of the meeting, which brought together many representatives of the medical profession from the county, who in past years have been prominent in contributing to the success of medical society work.

Dr. T. H. Phillips was elected chairman of the meeting and Dr. J. F. March and secretary. Later they were elected as permanent officers.

The organization shall be known as the Stark County Academy of Medicine.

The object of the Academy is to aid its members in the study of the causation, nature, treatment and prevention of disease; to foster a high standard of professional morality; to maintain friendly relations and confidence among its members.

Any regular physician, reputedly engaged in active practice, is eligible to membership.

After a free discussion as to the name of the society, a committee was appointed by the president to report on a constitution for the Academy.

The sections of the constitution were adopted separately and finally were approved as a whole. It provides that the work of the Academy shall be divided as follows: (1) General Practice; (2) Surgery; (3) Diseases of Women and Children and Midwifery; (4) Therapeutics and Sanitation; (5) Prevailing Diseases.

The regular meetings will be held the first Tuesday of alternate months.

The first regular meeting will be held in the City Hall, Canton, the first Tuesday of March, at 3 o'clock p. m., at which time the following program will be given: Papers will be read by Dr.
T. Clark Miller, of Massillon; Dr. E. O.
Portmann, of Canton; Report of cases, Dr. S. B. Post, of Canton; Dr. Barnes, of Massillon.

T. H. PHILLIPS, M. D., Pres't.
J. F. MARCHAND, M. D., Sec'y.

LOUISVILLE NEWS.

A Little Business for His Honor—Went to a Lyceum.

Chris Younion and Peter Weaver having had a pugilistic encounter at Smith's barber shop on Saturday eve, were arrested and brought before the Mayor, charged with disturbing the peace. Both pleaded guilty, paid their fines and went on their way rejoicing.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. John Kral's, living northwest of town, died this morning. The funeral will take place at 9 a. m. to-morrow.

Jacob Ettingberger was arrested today for calling William Warner bad names. He pleaded guilty before His Honor and paid his fine.

The people living north of the village will be glad to hear that the bridge on North Chapel street is at last completed.

Only two literary societies have been organized in the township. What's the matter with having a lyceum in town?

RUN DOWN

By a Fort Wayne Freight-The Sad Fate of a Pittsburgh Peddler.

As the News-DEMOCRAT was going to press Monday, a telephone message was received from its correspondent at Louisville, stating that Matthew Conwell, of Pittsburgh, had been run down by a Ft. Wayne freight, a short time before and had both legs cut off. The man was a peddler and had arrived but a few hours before the accident occured. After selling some goods, he imbibed a little fire water. It had such an effect upon him that it tangled his legs in a bridge over which he was passing. The approaching freight could not be stopped in time to save him.

A message received from Louisville this morning stated that the man had died about midnight and that he would probably be buried by the township.

A Valuable Relic.

Comrade John H. Lape, of the well known firm of Yost & Lape, is in possession of a highly prized relic, that has been handed down to him from his ancestors of the last century. It is the grant of a valuable tract of land in the then Province of Pennsylvania, that is dated Lancaster county, May 9, 1741.
The deed is a conveyance by the Penn brothers, John, Thomas and Richard, grandsons of William Penn, the founder of Pennsylvania, and from whom it derived its name. This ancient document is written in bold John Hancock style of penmanship, on very thick, ancient parchment and can be read as readily as if written yesterday. John Penn, one of the grantors above, was born in England in 1728, and was proprietary governor of Pennsylvania from 1763 to 1771, and again in 1773-75.

During the Revolutionary war he was neutral, as he held large landed interests and estates under the King of Great Britain. Richard Penn, the other brother, was also Proprietary Governor of Pennsylvania from 1771 to 1778. Mr. Lape had this valuable document at the Centennial in Philadelphia in 1876, and refused a large sum of money for it.

LATER DEVELOPMENTS

In the Affairs of Manager Rosche and His Travelers' Bureau.

Notwithstanding the statements made by Manager Rosche, which were published in yesterday's News-DEMOCRAT, new developments would seem to indicate that all is not lovely in the affairs of the bureau.

This afternoon it was rumored on the street that Mr. Rosche had severed his connection with the Hampden works and departed for pastures new and green. It was also stated that he had packed up a portion of his furniture preparatory to shipping it to his new field of labor.

Owing to the lateness of the hour it was impossible to ascertain positively if he had left the city. A telephone message to the Hampden office confirmed at least a portion of the rumor.
It was stated by an employee of that office that Mr. Rosche had been discharged last night on account of his connection with the Travelers' Bureau.

It is known that Mr. Rosche is in debt in this city and elsewhere, and this in connection with his being discharged would seem in some degree to confirm the rumor that he had either left or intended to leave the city.

It is certainly unfortunate for his family, as from all accounts his wife is a very fine lady and has the sympathy of all who are acquainted with her in this, her hour of sorrow.

Inquiry at the post office developed the fact that Mr. Rosche had not called for his mail to-day, and this also gives color to the rumor that he has left the city.

THEY ARE FALSE.

Such Declares Henry Berling as the Charges Made by His Wife for Divorce.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: I have no objection to my wife, Kate Berling, applying for a divorce, but I do object to the grounds she gives as stated in your issue of Monday, Jan. 21. All her allegations I declare untrue, and I will state to the public that I always treated her as is the duty of a good husband, as all our neighbors can testify. I only left her after her wayward conduct became such that I could no longer bear it. I the honor and uprightness of my character I can easily prove by my present and past employes, and many other men of repute who know me.

Respectfully,
HENRY BERLING.

Canton, Jan. 21.

SOME SURPRISE

Manifested in Navarre Over the Travelers' Bureau—A Dancing Club to Be Organized.

NAVARRA, Jan. 22.—There was considerable surprise manifested here at the article published in the News-DEMOCRAT Saturday evening, giving an account of D. R. Rosche's Travelers' Bureau, especially as he is the son of Peter Rosche, living just below Navarre.
He is one of the best citizens in the township.

The young folks of this place in the habit of tripping the light fantastic toe are making an effort to organize a dancing club at Eckrodt's hall. It is the intention to give a series of dances every Thursday evening.

IN JAIL AGAIN.

Ada Rauchenwind's Bondsman Asks to Be Released.

The Rauchenwinders are again in trouble. Sometime ago Christ and Ada were both bound over on a charge of grand larceny, to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $250 each.
Yesterday Christ and Ada had words and in consequence he induced his father to withdraw his name for Ada's bond and she is now in jail.

Yesterday she made some very serious charges against her husband and claiming that she is innocent of the charge on which she is now in jail and says that it was her husband who stole the money.

HAVE THEY BEEN CAUGHT?

Men Supposed to Have Burglarized Won-derly's Pawnshop Captured at Orrville.
Word was received at police headquarters this afternoon from Orrville that several tramps had been arrested there and that they had in their possession a number of revolvers and razors, also considerable jewelry of different kinds.

Marshal Fletcher is under the impression that they are the parties wanted in this city for burglarizing John Wonderly's pawn shop, and he will leave for Orrville this evening.

May Make Headquarters in This City.

Miss Jessie A. Morgan, the talented and active temperance worker, who is the State Superintendent of the work of the Y. W. C. T. U. is thinking something of making Canton her headquarters.
Hitherto she has resided at Oberlin, but Canton is easier of access from other points. It is hoped Miss Morgan will locate among us.

Wants a Divorce.

Mary Weidman has applied for a divorce from her husband Hiram on the ground of habitual drunkenness. He has been enjoined from disposing of any of his personal property.

MAKE NO MISTAKE—If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sas-saparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion and preparation, curative power superior to any other article of the kind before the people. For all affections arising from impure blood or low state of the system it is unequalled. Be sure to get Hood's.

THAT COCKING MAIN.

Knowing One Give the Leader the Laugh—A Suggestion.

That highly moral journal of civilization, the Alliance Leader, in commenting upon the account of a cocking main held in this city and recently published in the News-DEMOCRAT, for some unknown reason feels called upon to say:

"The Leader does not hanker after this variety of sporting news to any great extent, but the 'Alliance sports' demand that the DEMOCRAT be called down of its reckless abuse of the truth.
The facts are a couple of Alliance saloons stood around with several hundred dollars offering to place it on their birds in amounts to suit the Canton gang, and only succeeded in getting up $17, a pot the Cantonites raised in sums of 25 and 50 cents. The Alliance sports claim to have lost the battle by a very close call, and also that more money was spent for whisky than changed hands on the result."

Another match was made between the parties, which, if not prevented by the authorities, as it should be, will take place in this city within a few days.

THE WEEKLY DEMOCRAT would suggest that George Pettit, of the Leader, be interviewed. "Is said that under the cover of darkness and several 'smiles' he had no conscientious scruples against taking a peep at the sport. He can tell about as well as anyone else, too, how much money was dropped." This said, but the Alliance sports can't regain their money by newspaper articles of such character.

NEWS OF MASSILLON.

Personal Notes—Lecture Course—Our Amusements—Birds of Passage.
(Special Correspondence.)

MASSILLON, O., Jan. 22.
Mrs. David Clark, the wife of the proprietor of the Bridge House, died on Sunday afternoon of typhoid fever, and will be buried at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the house on West Main street. She leaves a husband and eight children. Mrs. Clark was a sister of Mr. George Phillips.

Mr. A. P. Wiseman slipped on the ice yesterday afternoon near the East street school house and fell, breaking his arm at the wrist.

Inquiry at police headquarters this morning elicited the information that George Fry, charged by William Bowers with assault and battery, had skipped the city. The hearing of the Zukerman brothers takes place to-day. The goods alleged to have been stolen have not as yet been found.

"They say" that the Continental cigar factory is booming, and that Mr. Sailer shortly intends to employ a hundred more hands.

Charles Halter is now employed at C. L. McLean & Co's. wholesale house.

An error was made in announcing the English Catholic social as taking place next Wednesday evening. It will be held on Thursday evening at the East Main street residence of Mr.
Frank Crono.

The first lecture of the course will be delivered to-morrow evening in the People's hall by Col. J. P. Sanford. The subject is "Old Times and New." The press comments upon Mr. Sanford's lecture are very favorable and he ought to have a large audience.

Adam Lieberman left yesterday afternoon for Hesse-Cassel, Germany, to attend to his business.

J. T. Brown spent the last few days in Middlebranch.

Miss Eva Shafer, who has lately been residing in Cleveland, this morning entered upon her duties as stenographer at the office of Russell & Co.

J. W. Warwick, of Cleveland, was in the city yesterday.

A New Enterprise in Canton.

Mr. W. H. Van Nortwick, an old newspaper man formerly of the Cleveland Leader, and Cleveland Herald, has been at the Barnett House for two weeks in the interest of the National Mutual and Building Loan Association of New York. Later he was joined by R. E.
Reynolds, one of the officers of the company. We learn their mission is to establish a branch office in Canton to be controlled by a local board of our citizens, hereafter to be chosen. Messrs. Reynolds and Van Nortwick will call upon our citizens and doubtless hold one or more public meetings, of which due notice will be given in our advertising columns.

A branch of the company is fixed at Cleveland and another has been located in Youngstown. The association is about one year old and claims to have issued about 20,000 shares. The shares are $100 each. The Mercantile Trust company of New York City, with a paid up capital of $2,000,000, is the trustee of the loan fund of the association, while the Chemical National Bank of the same city, having a reserve fund of $3,000,000, is the depository of the organization. The scope, object and aims of the association will be explained when the public meeting is held.

Our Neighbor is Pleased to Mention.

Charles R. Frazer, vice president of the Humane Society of the United States, vice president of the Canton Board of Trade, secretary of the Canton Audubon Society, ex-president of the Canton council, not to mention ex-candidate for mayor, has become business manager of the Canton News-DEMOCRAT, and will bring to it all the energy and enterprise at his command—and that is a good deal.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Diplomatic Deal That Sends U. S. Minister Phelps Home.

Prohibition and High License in Massachusetts.

The Steady Drift of Towns Toward License.

Colonel Conger Gives Way to Asa Bushnell for Governor.

AMERICAN MINISTER RETURNS.
A Diplomatic Affront Resented in a Diplomatic Way, You Know.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—[Special.]—The Tribune's London special says: American Minister Phelps on Monday had the last official interview with Lord Salisbury at the foreign office. I imagine, therefore, that the British foreign minister now understands that the departure of Phelps from England at this moment is not due to the fact that a Republican President will be inaugurated next March. Lord Salisbury knows that Phelps would naturally have remained here another two months and the foreign office people know that Phelps goes home because the British legation in Washington is vacant. This useful knowledge will filter down into the general English mind and will be understood here by the time Phelps steps on board the steamer at Southampton to go home, that a Diplomatic affront offered by the American Government to Lord Salisbury has been resented in a correct diplomatic way.

A Celebrated Case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The case of Kimberly vs. Arms, growing out of a mining claim and appealed from the circuit court of the Northern District of Ohio, was heard in the United States Supreme Court to-day. All the members of the court except Justice Mac-mahews, who is sick, were in their places on the bench. For Kimberly Asa W.
Jones, of Youngstown, appeared as counsel, and for Arms Judge Stevenson Burke, of Cleveland, and Colonel Thomas W. Sanderson, of Youngstown.
The matter was taken under advice-ment by the court.

License or Prohibition—Some Valuable Statistics.

BOSTON, Jan. 23.—[Special.]—An elaborate set of statistics extending over several years and covering every election at which liquor questions were involved have been prepared. This shows a steady increase in cities discarding prohibition and adopting high license, throughout Massachusetts. It has been demonstrated that Prohibition does not prohibit, while taxes have been increased on account of loss of money realized from high license.

A Man Who Has a Perpetual Motion.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—[Special.]— E. D. Speer has formed a company with a capital of five millions of dollars, to push his non-exhaust steam engine.
Speer does not hide it as Keely did his motor and claims it saves 95 per cent. of fuel and is practically perpetual motion. Some of the best engineers in the world say it is a success.

The Champion Biologist Discovered.

CALHOUN, Ga., Jan. 23.—[Special.]— J. O. Elms, the champion biologist of the South, has just been arrested by Sheriff McGinnis and lodged in jail here. He has nine wives; one in Texas, two in Georgia, two in Tennessee, and the rest at other points. One lives here.

John McIlwenny Very Sick.

WOOSTER, Jan. 22.—Hon. John Mc-Ilwenny, Wooster's great criminal lawyer, is very sick. He was taken down upon returning from his work in the Chevron case, and has grown worse ever since.

Captain Ricks in the Lead.

(Special to the Plain Dealer.) TOLEDO, Jan. 22.—It has been definitely settled that Judge Welker will retire from the judgeship of northern Ohio. The present clerk of court, A.
J. Ricks, is the only active candidate in the field for Judge Welker's position, though several ambitious Republican lawyers of Toledo are sighing because the plum seems to be going to a man who comes from another part of the district. Nearly all the Toledo lawyers of both parties have signed a petition for the appointment of Ricks, however, and there seems to be no doubt of his success.

Blaine Astonished at a Reporter's Check.

(Special to the Pittsburgh Dispatch.) BALTIMORE, January 22.—James G.
Blaine, accompanied by his son Em-mons, arrived here about noon to-day, to attend the stockholder's meeting of the West Virginia Central and Pittsburg Railroad Company. Ex-Senator Davis, President of the road, and Stephen B. Elkins met him at the door of the local office and conducted him into the little back room where the directors had been discussing matters generally. Several reporters had stationed themselves at the door, and as Mr. Blaine stepped across the threshold one of them asked him if he would be in the next Secretary of State.

The ex-Secretary was so overcome by the suddenness of the question that he stood still and looked askance at the reporter. Then, as if realizing his position, he amiably remarked, "that is a question which could be better answered in Indianapolis." From this reply it would seem that Mr. Blaine is not averse to a position in the Cabinet.

An Enterprise That Interests Canton.

AKRON, January 22.—The railroad known as the New York & Ohio, which has for some time past been on the tapis to be built on the old Clinton Air Line route, now seems to have taken a definite shape, as a mortgage was to-day filed here by the New York & Ohio railway company in behalf of the Farmer's Loan and Trust Company of New York for $1,000,000 or not to exceed $200,000 per mile for said railroad. The road will pass through the counties of Trumbull, Geauga, Portage and Summit and will be built between Greenville, Pa., connecting with the Cleveland, Canton & Southern railroad at the former place and with the Erie & Pennsylvania at the latter place.

A DEAL FOR OHIO.

Col. Conger Will Not Be a Candidate For Governor of Ohio, But Will Get a Soft Place Under Ben Harrison.

(Special Correspondence.)

AKRON, Jan. 23.—Col. Conger has returned from a visit to Indianapolis where he saw the President elect. He announces that he will not be a candidate for Governor of Ohio, but will support Asa Bushnell of Springfield, Indiana, Conger had a conference with Bushnell. It is now understood here that Conger will be taken care of by the incoming administration, either with an important foreign Consulate or a snug berth in Washington, in charge of a department bureau.

DREAD DROPSY

Causes the Death of an Old Resident and Probably the Largest Man in the State.

MASSILLON, Jan. 23.—[Special.]—It was learned here this afternoon that the largest man in Stark county and probably in the State of Ohio, died at his home in Sugar Creek township this morning of dropsy. He was William Kurtz, and some time ago he weighed 400 pounds. Owing to illness it has increased to over 600 pounds. It was found necessary to have a coffin made especially for his remains. His funeral will be held Friday morning and the remains will be interred at the Cross Roads church.

WHEAT GAMBLERS IN CHICAGO.

The Bears on Top—May Wheat Goes Down to 97 5/8.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—[Special.]—There was most intense excitement in the wheat pit to-day, and for awhile pandemium reigned supreme. The Bears seemed flushed with their victory of yesterday, and crowded their advantage from the opening of the Board.
May wheat sold off to 98 cents within the first five minutes of the opening, and later went to 97 5/8.

THE MINNESOTA ROW.

Claimed That Washburn is Elected—Charged That He Bought His Place.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 23.—[Special.]— It is claimed that the ballot in the House yesterday elects Washburn U. S.
Senator, as the House did not adjourn yesterday, but simply took a recess, so that the legislative day of yesterday still continues, and that a majority of both houses have voted for Washburn.
There is much bad blood on the part of Senator Sabin's friends, and charges are openly made that Washburn purchased his election.

LATER DISPATCH.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 23.—[Special.]—An other vote on the United States Senator was taken in the House this morning.
It resulted as follows: Washburn 80, Durbin 8, scattering 8, start 8. This makes Washburn United States Senator.

Why the K. of L. Declined in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—[Special.]—Well posted people declare that the membership of the K. of L. has declined more than fifty per cent. in this vicinity during the past three years. This has been owing to fractional quarrels and jealousies and bickerings among the leaders.

An Enthusiastic Audience.

At the Gospel Temperance meeting last night E. N. Johnson, Esq., of Alliance, occupied a good part of the evening, so that Maj. Camp did not deliver his discourse on "Side Tracks," but will do so this evening in Temperance Hall.
The audience last night was larger and more enthusiastic than at any time since the meetings began. A full attendance is requested to hear Major Camp to-night.

An Enjoyable Affair.

A very pleasant evening was spent Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. J.
J. Brumbaugh, on West Ninth street, vocal and instrumental music making up the program for the occasion. Miss Anna Grether, sister of Mrs. Brumbaugh, Mr. William Scott, Mr. R.
Schuff, Mr. Ed Roth furnished music from the organ, violin and guitar, and it was greatly enjoyed by the company.

Fighting in Earnest.

Last week Captain Jack Crawford with his troupe played in Canton.
In the play is a thrilling bowie knife fight between Captain Crawford and the Comanche Indian, Running Bear. Last night at Cincinnati at the Standard

Theater, the Indian was drunk and tried to kill Crawford in the duel scene.
It was a hard and terrible fight with knives. According to the play Crawford should have taken the knife from the Indian. He refused to give it up and made some vicious lunges. After a desperate struggle the scout got the upper hand and pricked the Indian two or three times in the side with the threat to kill him if he made any further hostile demonstrations. After the play the Indian escaped and the police are looking for him fearing he may do some harm.

A CRUEL TRICK.

Some Inside History on the Domestic Life of Dr. Dissinger and Wife of Canal Fulton.

Gossipers at Canal Fulton are still rolling under their tongues like a succulent morsel the Dissinger scandal.
The charges are of such a grave character that, although talked about in that place for months, yet the filing of the petition for divorce by Mrs. Dissinger had the effect of increasing the interest in the case.

A well known resident of that place was in this city the other day and talked at some length on the case. He gave some inside history of the case which will prove interesting to many persons. From his story it would appear that the Doctor's dissolute ways were proving to be a thorn in his wife's side, and when this intentional or accidental poisoning took place, it was more than human being could stand.

After consulting friends Mrs. Dissinger took steps to commence action against her husband for poisoning her.
He grew frightened when he learned of the turn matters were taking, and at once began to pet her and coddle her until, woman-like, she almost forgave him for what she believed was an attempt to put her out of the way. In addition to paying more marked attentions than in the hey-day of courting life he stated that he would give her a valuable piece of real estate. This was the last straw to break the hard feelings she naturally entertained toward her scoundrelly husband and on a fine summer
